Mrs Philippa Martin

Deputy Headteacher

Our role is to act as a link between families and school and put you in touch with a variety of agencies should you need any support for your family.

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility, we need to work together.

Parenting can be challenging. Parents themselves require and deserve support.

Ways in which you can help the school

Please let us know about anything that might affect your child, or other children in the school. We might be able to help.

Let us know if your child has a medical condition or has had an accident.

If your child is absent from school please let us know on their first day of absence. We may be able to offer support.

If you move house or out of the area and don't need your place at our school please let us know this too.

We will respond promptly to any problem you tell us about.

Our staff will offer support and assistance when needed.

We will take good care of your child whilst they are with us. We will talk to you about anything we see that we are worried about.

We will keep accurate up to date records.
